London City Mission (LCM)

www.lcm.org.uk

LCM works on the front line, taking the message of Jesus to London's least reached.

LCM missionaries help churches to open new doors.

LCM works for the good of the people of London, bringing help to those on the margins and across ethnic groups.

LCM works patiently, and for the long term, seeking to be faithful to Christ. This has been their mission since 1835.

LCM works to extend the kingdom into the least reached parts of London.

"London City Mission's first missionaries showed incredible courage in their commitment to those in need, caring for them as they suffered and died of cholera, and sharing an eternal hope in their darkest hour. With courage, compassion and commitment, generations of missionaries have followed in their footsteps, reaching out to the least reached in the name of Jesus in communities across this city.

Over the past decades, London has changed dramatically. Many of the districts we work in have changed beyond recognition. But the gospel need remains – and our vision, to take the gospel to London's least reached and hardest to reach people, remains the same. Because of its diversity, London is a unique mission field, and one of the world's most strategic cities for world mission. A city of great need, yet a city of enormous gospel opportunity."

Please support and pray for their work.
